

CALGARY, ALBERTA – MAY 2019 – Epic Roofing & Exteriors announced that it has been selected as a member of the Owens Corning Roofing Platinum Preferred Contractor Network. Owens Corning Roofing and Asphalt, LLC invited Epic to join this premier network of top tier roofing professionals based upon its commitment to service, reliability and outstanding craftsmanship.

The Owens Corning Roofing Platinum Preferred Roofing Contractor network is considered one of the most exclusive contractor programs in the industry. To be accepted, Epic Roofing & Exteriors must pass an installation workmanship inspection, carry at least $1 million in general liability insurance, and be screened for financial stability and customer service.

"We are honored to become a member of the Owens Corning Roofing Platinum Preferred Contractor Program," said Merlin Bartel, CEO at Epic Group. "We appreciate that purchasing a new roof is a significant decision and are proud to have Owens Corning Roofing supporting the commitment to excellence we bring to our customers."

"Owens Corning Roofing Platinum Preferred Contractor Network members are chosen based on their proven market and industry leadership," said Jason Lewinski, Owens Corning Roofing Contractor Network Leader. "This network underscores Owens Corning Roofing's commitment to providing value within the building materials industry and ensuring our roofing contractors have the tools and business solutions they need to grow their business."

Through the Owens Corning Roofing Platinum Preferred Contractor Network, Epic is able to provide exclusive benefits and peace of mind to its customers, including extended system limited warranties* that also offer a limited lifetime workmanship coverage.**
